LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF WAR,

ON

THE SUBJECT OF A CALL

OF THE

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES UNITED STATES,

FOR INFORMATION

RELATIVE TO THE CLAIM OF MASSACHUSETTS

FOR

EXPENSES INCURRED IN CALLING OUT THE MILITIA

OF

THAT STATE DURING THE LATE WAR.

FEBRUARY 6, 1818.

Read, and ordered to lie on the table.

WASHINGTON:

PRINTED BY E. DE KRAFFT.

DEPARTMENT OF WAR,

FEBRUARY 4, 1818.

SIR,

In compliance with a resolution of the House of Representatives, "directing the Secretary of War to lay before that House a statement of the claims of the state of Massachusetts, for expenses of calling out the militia of that state during the late war, and the reasons why those claims have not been settled by that Department," I have the honor to state, that the report from this Department, dated 20th February last, contains all the information to be found in this office, in relation to the claims of the state of Massachusetts, for the expense of calling out the militia of that state, and the reasons why they have not been allowed; to which I would respectfully refer the House.

I have the honor to be,

With very great respect,

Your most obedient servant,

J. C. CALHOUN.

The Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States.
